DETAILED ACTION

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claims 13-15 have been renumbered as claims 5-7.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 7, "into the shape thereof" is not understood.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fischer.

Fischer discloses a grappling hook in which a shank defines first and second ends as claimed. The claimed "balance point" is an inherent feature of a hook.

Art Unit: 3617

Re claim 7, such is method of making, which carries no weight in an apparatus claim.

6. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Alfred.

Alfred teaches the forming of rope into a desired shape, and then placement of shrink plastic 22 thereon.

Re "method of manufacture of a grappling hook", the recited method fails to "breath life" into such preamble, and therefore it has been accorded no weight in the claim.

7. Applicant's arguments filed July 11, 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that although Fischer inherently has a balance point, it does not operate as in the present invention.

The claim fails to set forth such differences. For example, in claim 5, "when" is a limitation which is time dependent, and such a situation need not occur, and therefore is given no weight. Such is further a method of operation within an apparatus claim, again carrying no weight.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Ellis discloses the forming of a rope into a desired shape, and placement of shrink plastic thereon.

Taylor teaches a rope formed into a spring shape, and coated with plastic and cured.

Art Unit: 3617

Kleine discloses a hook.
